

During Speak and Share, students will...

- Discuss various topics with classmates and the teacher.
- Learn lots of natural expressions from American and British English in every class.
- Improve speaking confidence through lots of speaking opportunities in pairs and small groups.
- Share stories with classmates in a safe and friendly space.
- Learn how to use SNS and multimedia to learn English in a more entertaining way.

Speak and Share topics will include:

Life goals	Meeting new people	Cultural differences	Current events	Dating and friendships
Important possessions	Travel experiences	Fashion	Hobbies	Technology and the future

ASK ME ANYTHING!

This Speak and Share course is for you. I am very happy to design classes based on topic choices and activities that students want to discuss. This is our class, not my class.

Class schedule:

Due to red days on 4/10, 5/6, and 5/15, there will be some changes to the schedule. I will update you about these changes as the semester progresses. However, this is the general plan so far...

3/25 & 3/27	Session 1: Welcome & Introductions Welcome activities Course Q & A	Session 2: Welcome & Introductions Construct and share short student-student introductions
4/1 & 4/3	Session 1: Life goals Let's talk about what you want to achieve in life. How can you achieve your goals?	Session 2: Travel experiences Where have you been? What have you done? Let's share our stories and recommend some cool places to our classmates.
4/8 & 4/10	Session 1: Meeting new people Meeting new people isn't easy! We need to share some tips about the best ways to meet new friends, classmates, and co-workers.	Session 2: Important possessions What are the most important things that you own? Let's do an American style 'show and tell', and talk about some of our favorite items.
4/15 & 4/17	Session 1: Activities It's Mid-Term Preparation week! Most students will be a little busy, so we will focus on some requested activities and do some fun activities. We can improve our English ability and confidence without working too hard this week!	Session 2: Activities (See session 1)
4/29 & 5/1	Session 1: Cultural differences Are people the same around the world? Of course not! Let's talk about the differences between Korea and other countries, including the UK, the USA, and European countries.	Session 2: Fashion What do clothes mean to you? How do you judge people on their clothes? Let's discuss questions like this, and talk about our favorite styles.

5/6 & 5/8	Session 1: Hobbies Let's talk about free-time activities, including mainstream hobbies and unique hobbies. What do you do to relax?	Session 2: Dating and friendships Let's talk about dating styles and friendships in Korea and other countries. There are lots of interesting differences!
5/13 & 5/15	Session 1: SNS We use SNS every day of our lives. How can we use it to improve our English skills and vocabulary? You will be surprised about how useful SNS is for learning English in a fun and natural way.	Session 2: Technology and the future Does technology make our lives better or worse? I want to discuss this with you before the robots take over the world.
5/20 & 5/22	Session 1: Current events Which news stories and events are interesting for you? Let's discuss them.	Session 2: Presentation skills Giving presentations is difficult and scary for everyone! However, there are some small tricks that you can use to make presentations much easier. Let's talk about them.
5/27 & 5/29	Session 1: Requested topics Here, I will save some space for your requested topics. I am very happy to talk about whatever you want to talk about!	Session 2: Requested topics (See session 1).
6/3 & 6/5	Session 1: Closing These sessions will focus on finishing off the topics. Students will have one more chance to ask questions. The teacher will use this time to set students up with the resources they need for further English improvement.	Session 2: Closing (See session 1).
