Survival Czech

Free course offered to Erasmus students

This is a short four days' course organized during the orientation week. It's intended for real beginners to teach them basic phrases, to let them understand regards, requests, formulate simple questions used in an everyday contact with Czech people. To participate in the Survival Czech Course students have to register in advance, a registration form is sent to all students. Participants of the survival course are offered to continue in a semester course.

See details on: www.kb.upol.cz

Czech Language Course

Palacký University provides a free course of Czech for Foreigners for international short-term students throughout the academic year. The course starts at the beginning of each semester. You will be asked to take a placement test first to identify your language skills and select the appropriate course. There are always courses for beginners, intermediate and advanced learners. Students who regularly attend the course, fulfil the tasks and pass the final exam are granted credits for the semester course. Updated information regarding the placement test, instructors, classrooms, etc. is provided in the Orientation Week and also at: www.kb.upol.cz/czech-for-foreigners/. For enquiries, e-mail darina.hradilova@upol.cz. The test available on the website needs to be submitted to the same email address.

Aside from Czech language courses designed for international short-term students, there are also tailored courses of Czech language for prospective international students, who are planning to join a BA or MA programme.

The courses are organized by The Centre of Distance Learning of the Faculty of Arts (details on: www.ff.upol.cz/en/groups/studying/czech-languages-courses)
